-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --
Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☐ Responsive to communication(s) filed on ____.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1, 5, 11-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Huseman, U. S. Patent 6,718,738.

With respect to claim 1, Huseman teaches comprising: a front wall 14 and a back wall 16, wherein the front wall and back wall joined right and left side edges 20 and 22 and bottom edge 18 to defined a cavity in the main body of the bag. The bag also has a plurality of vents 68 formed in the main body. The front and back walls constructed of a material that will withstand freezing and heating.

With respect to claim 5, Huseman teaches the vents that are formed in the front and back walls.

With respect to claims 11-15, Huseman teaches central strip 42 having openings 44 for attachment to pegs 74 of saddle structure 70.

With respect to claim 14, Huseman teaches the central strip 42 perforated at line 58.

3. Claims 1, 3-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ling, U. S. Patent 4,978,231.

With respect to claim 1, 3-5, Ling teaches comprising: a front wall and a back wall, as seen in figure 2, wherein the front wall and back wall joined right and left side edges and bottom edge 18 to defined a cavity in the main body of the bag. (Figure 1) The bag also has a plurality of semi circular vent slits 50 formed in the main body. The front and back walls constructed of a material that will withstand freezing and heating.

Claims 1, 3-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102b) as being anticipated by Wilfong, U. S. Patent 6,286,681

With respect to claim 1-3, 5, Wilfong teaches comprising: a front wall 13 and a back wall 14, wherein the front wall and back wall joined right and left side edges 15 and bottom edge 16 to defined a cavity in the main body of the bag. The bag also has a plurality of vents 30 formed in the main body. The front and back walls constructed of a High Molecular Weight-High Density Polyethylene.

4. Claims 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Huffer, U. S. Patent 6,637,939. Huffer teaches a vented bag for microwave cooking comprising providing bag with a venting member 48, placing food within the bag, freezing the bag and removing the bag from the freezer and placing the bag in a microwave for cooking.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1, 6-10, 13 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over DeMatteis et al., U. S. Patent 6,502,371 in view of Turner, U. S. Patent 3,857,139.

7. DeMatteis teaches a bag comprising a front wall (not shown), rear wall (not shown), ventilation slits 22. DeMatteis also teaches printing the bag with logo. (column 2, lines 55-61). Turner teaches a bag with color-coded indicia to indicate the date of week. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to construct the bag taught by DeMatteis with color codes as taught by Turner to provide a means to indicate a particular day of the week.

With respect to claim 8-9, since the indicia does not provide an unobvious functional relationship with the bag, the examiner contents that the specific claimed indicia is a design consideration.

With respect to claim 10, any surface on the bag void of indicia is capable of receiving marking information.

8. Claims 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Huseman in view Wilfong. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art the time this invention was made to construct the bag taught by Huseman made of High Molecular Weight-High Density Polyethylene to provide a bag with superior stiffness, cost, and processability. (Column 5, lines 19-24).

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Cassandra Davis whose telephone number is 703-308-2223. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday 8:00-4:30.
